

The St. Johns River is the longest river in Florida, flowing 310 miles from south to north. This big river provides a home for many kinds of fishes, including trophy bass weighing 10lbs or more. You can catch bass, catfish, redfish, and bluegills, just to name a few. All you need is a cane pole, some crickets, and worms to see what kind of fish you will catch.