1. What is a Safety Net Hospital
2. What is UF Health Jacksonville
3. Why is UF Health Jacksonville at Risk
4. A Face of the Uninsured

Teaching Hospitals

Jackson Health System*
Mount Sinai Medical Center*
Orlando Regional Healthcare*
UF Health - Gainesville*
UF Health - Jacksonville*
Tampa General Hospital*

Public Hospitals

Halifax Medical Center*
Lee Memorial Health System
Memorial Healthcare System
North Broward Hospital*
Sarasota Memorial Hospital

Children's Hospitals

Regional Perinatal Intensive Care Center

Sacred Heart Health System*

Hospitals with residency programs*

Self Pay 11%

Medicare 37%

Hospital owned by the City and operated by UF Health Jacksonville.

The 5th largest employer in Jacksonville.

Total operating budget of $550 million of which $350 million is salaries and benefits.

Affiliated with

- 400 faculty + 320 residents & fellows
- $300 million operating budget

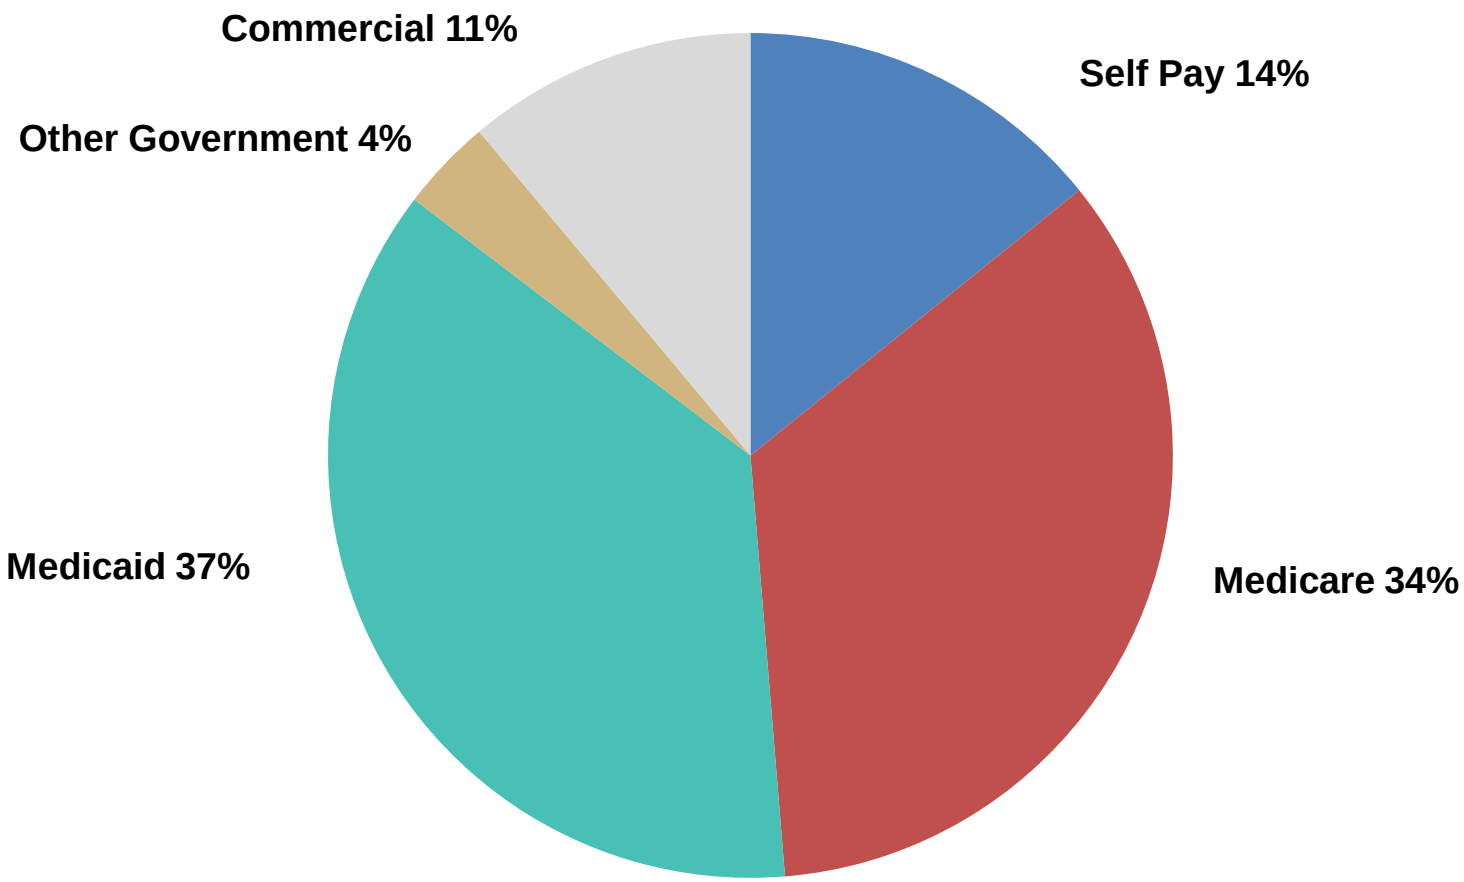
:
:

UF Health Jacksonville utilizes UHC to benchmark itself against other academic medical centers ac9(er)6

1. What is a Safety Net Hospital
2. What is UF Health Jacksonville
3. Why is UF Health Jacksonville at Risk
4. A Face of the Uninsured

Safety Net Care

UF Health Jacksonville (days) 51%

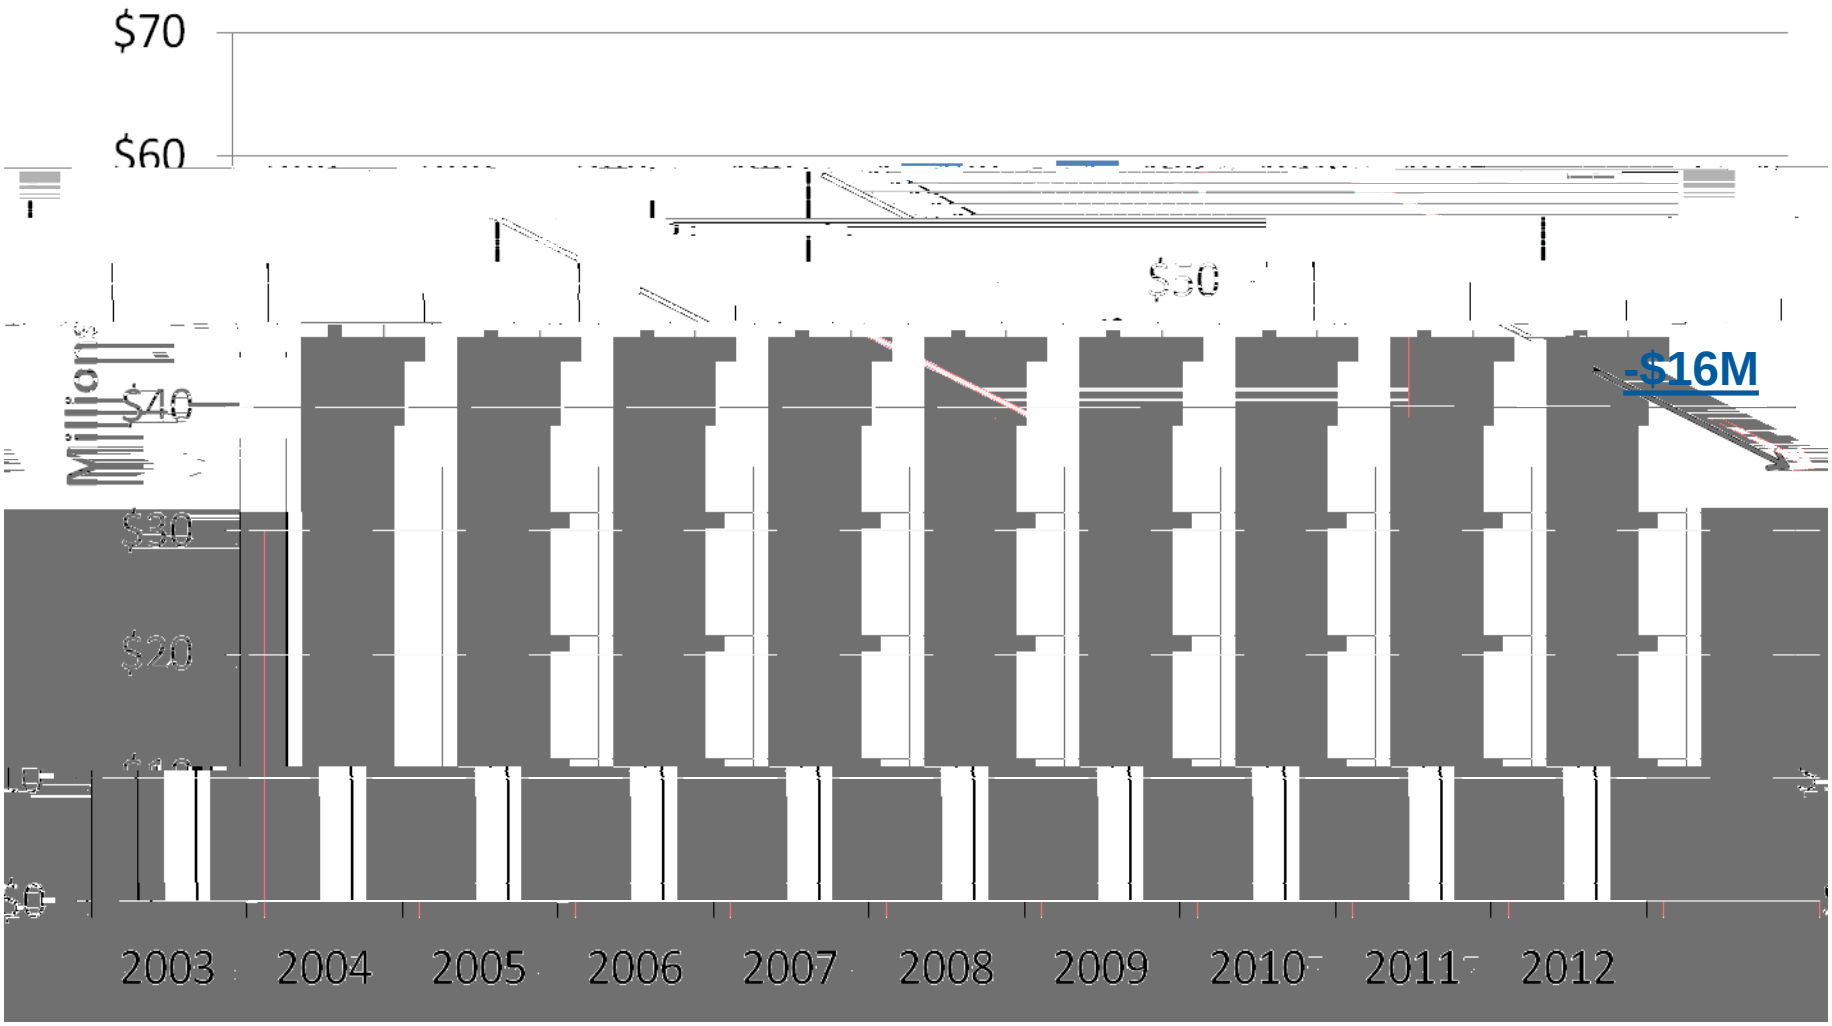


Source: 2011 FHURS, worksheet B1B acute

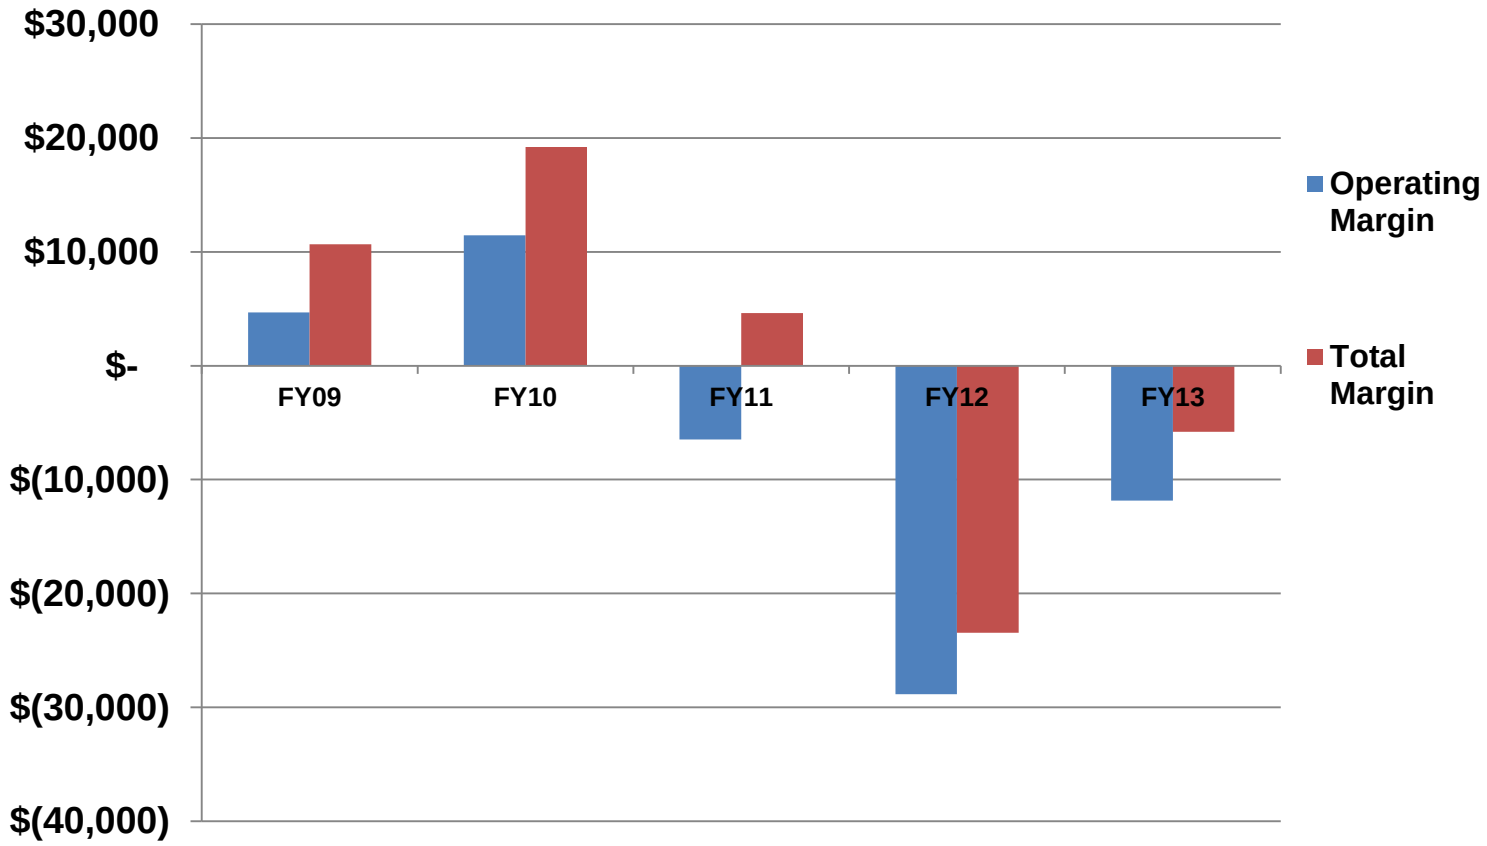
Days - Medicare & Medicaid include FFS & HMO values.

Lower Income Pool & Disproportionate Share Hospital Funding

FY12 funding down 43% or $27M as compared to FY08



(dollars in thousands)



A Face of the Uninsured

Source: Miami Herald, Thursday, September 5, 2013